Sightseeing

- Avenida del Puerto & Plaza de la Hispanidad – Central avenue and square with an impressive monument.
- Puertas de Tierra – Massive 18th-century city gate once separating the old town from newer districts.
- Cathedral of Cádiz (Catedral Nueva) – Iconic landmark with golden dome visible from afar. Inside: bright interior, 12 chapels, and ornate choir stalls. Construction stretched over centuries, blending different styles.
- Playa de la Caleta – Picturesque city beach framed by two fortresses, known for its romantic charm.
- Iglesia del Carmen – Baroque-style church.
- Plaza de España – Features the large Constitution Monument of 1812.
- Playa Santa María & Playa Victoria – Long sandy beaches, great for a coastal view of the city.
- James Bond Film Location – Scene with Halle Berry filmed here (set as Cuba in the movie).
- Old Town Streets – Narrow alleys with whitewashed houses, shops, and authentic Andalusian atmosphere.

Additional Tips

- Hop-On Hop-Off Bus:
 - Great way to see Cádiz, especially if not crowded—sit on both sides for the best photo opportunities.
 - Consider doing one full round first for an overview before deciding where to get off.

- Ticket often includes cathedral entrance, making it very good value.
- Exploring on Foot:
 - City center is only about 2 km from the cruise terminal, easily walkable with lots of atmosphere along the way.
- Cathedral Visit:
 - Worth visiting inside—the bright walls, dome, and richly decorated chapels are highlights.
- Excursion Option – Seville:
 - About 120 km from Cádiz.
 - Alcázar Palace – Famous Moorish arches, mosaics, and gardens; filming location for movies and TV series.
 - Seville Cathedral – Third largest in the world, largest Gothic cathedral in Europe; climb the Giralda tower for panoramic views.
 - Santa Cruz Quarter – Narrow streets, hidden courtyards, tapas bars, and lively Andalusian charm.
