Sightseeing

- Plaza de España – Largest square in the Canary Islands, with a circular lagoon-like water feature in the center, surrounded by historic buildings and cafés.
- Auditorio de Tenerife – Futuristic, seashell-shaped concert hall by architect Santiago Calatrava; one of the city’s most iconic landmarks.
- City Sculptures – Numerous public artworks throughout Santa Cruz give the city an open-air museum feel.
- Historic House with Wooden Balconies – Example of traditional Canarian architecture with finely carved interiors and craftsmanship.
- Old Town Streets – Charming alleys lined with small shops selling clothes, souvenirs, and local specialties.
- Cafés & Ice Cream Stops – Plenty of places to pause and enjoy a refreshing treat in the warm streets of Santa Cruz.

Additional Tips

- Transfers & Transport:
 - Cruise shuttles run directly from the port to the city center, making it easy to skip taxis.
- Exploring the City:
 - Best experienced on foot: stroll through the old town, admire wooden balconies, visit squares, and relax in cafés.

- Don't miss Plaza de España and the Auditorio de Tenerife as the city's main highlights.
- Excursion Options:
 - Loro Parque (Puerto de la Cruz) – Famous zoo and marine park about 50 km away. Not always included in organized excursions; visitors should arrange transfers early.
 - Mount Teide & Cable Car – Spain's highest peak (3718 m). Offers stunning views of the volcanic landscape.
 - Hiking – Tenerife has a wide network of hiking routes for all levels, from easy coastal walks to challenging mountain treks.
 - Beaches – Relax at golden or black volcanic sand beaches, each with unique character.
